

Technical Analyst

(domain: banking)

Position Responsibilities:

- Demonstrates a good understanding of procedures and concepts through extensive experience and advice the execution of design, implementation and support test plans.
- Effectively interacts with colleagues through proper analyses of the business value outcomes and supports the execution of the projects including technology perspective, capability road map and possible scenarios for deployment.
- Supports the deployment team to deliver activities related, but not limited to generating domain level deployment specifications and test applications by designing, writing and updating test cases and test scripts.
- Includes overseeing regression, system integration, ad hoc testing and completing defect reports and verifying any fixed issues.
- Uses communication skills to exchange ideas and information in a concise and logical way to support ensuring relevance of test scripts, 3rd party vendors, project teams and other relevant stakeholders.
- Demonstrates a good understanding of procedures and concepts through acquired experience, to supervise the process of requirements revision, specifications and technical design in order to ensure smooth quality assurance processes.
- Supports the team to follow the delivery roadmap, ensuring product is available to the customer in line with KPIs (e.g. on time and to specified standard);
- Performs other job-related duties or tasks defined by the supervisor or resulting from assigned agendas.

Key Skills and Qualifications:

- Fluency in English language.
- Fluency in Romanian language.
- Minimum 3 years relevant technical experience
- General software troubleshooting skills (broad experience in logical problem-solving)
- Familiar with relational databases concepts, both basic administration and SQL scripting
- Familiar with client server architecture
- Familiar with web service technologies (SOAP, REST APIs, swagger, yaml, etc.)
- Experience working with web-based applications.
- Experience of self-sufficiency to install/upgrade/downgrade/configure software in general.
- Ability to communicate clearly (both verbally and in written form) technical instructions to people with limited experience.
- Experience in banking, financial institutions domain is an asset.